Cat And Dog Theology Rethinking

The God-given traits of cats ("you exist to serve me") and dogs ("I exist to serve you") are often similar to certain theological attitudes held by many Christians in their view of God and their relationship to him. Using the differences between cats and dogs in a light-hearted manner, the authors challenge this thinking in deep and profound ways.

Cat & Dog Theology: Rethinking Our Relationship with Our ...

The authors use the analogy of the difference between dogs and cats to describe differences in Christians. They begin with the idea that a dog says "You pet me, you feed me, you shelter me, you love me, you must be God.". While the cat says, "You pet me, you feed me, you shelter me, you love me, I must be God..".

Cats and Dogs see prayer quite differently too. In fact, Dogs and Cats can pray the exact same prayers but have two distinct meanings. Take, for example, the prayer, "Dear Lord, we just ask You to bless our church." Immediately there should be warning flags. Cats are only praying for their church and not for the greater kingdom of God.

CAT & DOG THEOLOGY - Operation World

Cat and Dog Theology helps students learn that life is not about them: it is about living to glorify God! Students are challenged to consider their core motivation: "Who do I live for? Do I live for God-or do I expect God to live for me?"

Welcome to Cat and Dog Theology!

Cat n Dog Theology has just found a unique, memorable, humor-filled, scripture-based way of communicating the need for Christians to re-think their relationship with their Master (God). The purpose of Cat n Dog Theology is to call the global church away from its self-centeredness and to focus on the glory of God.

Cat Dog Theology Homeschool Curriculum - Christianbook.com

"Cat and Dog Theology" parallels Bonhoeffer's "Cheap Grace" concept but is much more illustrative and easier to comprehend (and very entertaining). And it hits the nail on the head every bit as much as DieBn did. "Cat and Dog" asks us : Is God our cosmic servant (cat theology), or are we God's earthly servants (dog theology)?
