DREAMWOOD is my first book, out now from Putnam (Penguin Random House). It's the story of Lucy Darrington, a determined twelve-year-old girl who undertakes a dangerous journey to find her father, an expert in the supernatural who's gone missing in search of dreamwood, a rare tree with magical properties.

Heather Mackey hit this one, her first, out of the park, with a beautifully realized fictional setting, characters with grit and spunk, and an ecological/environmental mystery/problem to solve. On top of that, she writes some really lovely sentences. flag 2 likes · Like · see review Dec 16, 2019 Essie-

After an early job counting dead bugs in an entomology lab, Heather Mackey realized she was better at making up stories about imaginary science than practicing the real thing. She lives in Northern California—with her husband and two kids—where she's still perfecting the ultimate dance party playlist.
