With 'Others', Herbert not only ticked all my boxes, he filled them in with black permanent marker! James Herbert is a master at the opening line, and this one has a belter; a single paragraph, "My redemption began in Hell."

Others is a long book, and much time is spent on atmosphere, mood, and setup. But not all horror readers enjoy excessive exposition. James Herbert is known for grisly situations in his books, and patient readers will be rewarded with some of the most disturbing, frightening, and outright nasty scenes he has ever written in Others. It's a terrifying, doom-laden journey, but Herbert isn't merely interested in making people cringe.
