a Man's Strength? - The Gospel...

When he was born his parents named him Samson, which means "little son," but he grew up to be a very strong man. One day when a ferocious lion leaped out and attacked him, Samson seized the lion by its jaws and tore it in two. The Bible says, "The Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him in power." (NIV).

Lesson 9 - Samson, The Strong Man

Samson lost not only his strength, but he lost the most important thing of all. He lost that feeling of oneness with the indwelling Lord, the Source of his great strength. We are also told that his eyes were put out. This means a loss of spiritual perception.
