Looking to get a used Vanguard 7000 I recently aquired up and running, need speed control repaired to get spindle motor to run, and software to run it. My deliema is which way to go keep setup factory and run Engrave lab like it is, or re wire the whole mess and go for a new controller and run using mach3. Any pro's or cons either way would like to keep it inexpensive but don't want to go the ...
